

CALENDAR

An Exhibition, a Sale and Tours

Gardening Sale

Horticultural Society of New York, 128 West 58th Street; (212) 757-0915.

The society's annual sale starts Monday and runs through Aug. 28. Shoppers can get at least 30 percent off on such items as black cast-iron urns, gardening tools, containers, watering cans, dried floral arrangements and heirloom seeds. Open Monday through Friday, 10 A.M. to 6 P.M. No charge for admission.

Written on the Walls

New-York Historical Society, Central Park West at 77th Street; (212) 873-3400.

"Fading Ad Campaign: Vintage Painted Signs," an exhibition of 20 color prints by the photographer Frank H. Jump, opens Tuesday and continues through Nov. 1. Mr. Jump photographs advertisements painted on buildings in New York City and has researched some of the companies that bought the advertisements, including one for Reckitt's Blue, a laundry product from the turn of the century. Open Tuesday through Sunday, 11 A.M. to 5 P.M. Suggested donation for adults is $5.

Brooklyn Tours

Brooklyn Center for the Urban Environment, Tennis House in Prospect Park; enter at Ninth Street and Prospect Park West; (718) 788-8549.

Two architectural walking tours will be given, starting with a tour in Fort Greene, a neighborhood known for its Victorian brownstones, on Saturday beginning at 11 A.M. Meet on the steps of the Brooklyn Academy of Music.

A picture by Frank H. Jump at the New-York Historical Society show.

A second tour, to theaters and movie palaces in Flatbush, will be offered on Aug. 8 at 11 A.M. Meet at the corner of Flatbush Avenue and Church Street, in front of the Kenmore Theater. Fee, each tour, $8; members, $6; children 12 and younger and those 65 and older, $5.

One-Room Showhouse

Mecox Gardens, 257 County Road 39A, Southampton, N.Y.; (516) 287-5015.

Jeffrey Bilhuber, an interior designer, and Madison Cox, a landscape designer, have teamed up to present an indoor-outdoor space at Mecox, an interior and landscape design company, which also sells antiques, decorative objects and plants.

The space designed by Mr. Bilhuber, which will be on display through Aug. 10, is a former potting shed decorated with antique furniture and decorative objects.

Mr. Cox's summer garden is planted with tomatoes and other vegetables.

Open daily, 9 A.M. to 5 P.M. No charge.